“ I met Barbara over twenty (20) years ago, in 1960 at Hyde Park Hight School. She was the sister I never had. We shared so mush, I would pour my heart out to her. She was one (1) of the most beautiful people I had ever met. She had a heart of gold, she would take the shirt off her back and give it to you. I will miss her dearly. I pray I was a good & dear friend(sister to her as she was to me. I pray she will rest in peace because she was a true servant of God.Your sister in Christ & loving friend, Mary

“ I first met Barbara in the 1980s. She lived near her Grandmother and I was staying with her. She would come by to visit her Grandmother and would take me places that I needed to go. We would talk about things and she would give me her advice. I enjoyed our talks and just riding around with her sometimes! I will miss her VERY much! My love for her will stay in my heart!!
