“ Billy, I was thinking about you and found out that you had passed. The last time we talked, I was planning a trip from SC to Chicago, making a stop to see you on Indianapolis; however, those plans had changed.

I am at a lost for words. We would catch up 1-2 times a year and laughed our butts off. I will miss you. You became a friend to me and my husband. I remember when we visited and we were going fishing. You talked about us because we didn't catch anything. Again more laughter.

You were one of the kindest persons I've know. I pray that your children, grandchildren and family have much peace and blessings. You were proud of them all. Rest easy my friend~~~~Jada

“ As we go through life, we meet people who inevitably become so close to our hearts that they are family. Family is more than ties by blood, it's a connection to and from each other. Blood does not make a family, love does. There are friends, there is family, and then there are friends that become family. I have to say good-bye and I will not see you again in this lifetime, but at the same time I will carry you in my heart, mind and spirit. Just because you are no longer of this world does not change that you are family and that we will miss you.

Kenda, Autumn and Demodrick

John 16:22

So also you have sorrow now, but I will see you again and your hearts will rejoice, and no one will take away your joy.

Joshua 1:9

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go.”

“ Billy not only was Billy my very best friend, he was very much my brother. The times we shared together were priceless. Trips we took to places that we had never been were so exciting for both of us. I visited Billy's home so often that he made sure that his home was my home. Billy's love and smile was so contagious that people were just drawn to him. I'm going to miss his gumbo, smothered pork steaks and his ambrosia. Really, just his cooking and friendship. Some days we would talk about three to four times a day for hours on end. Know that it feels like a piece of me have been ripped out of me however, I know that Spirit was never born therefore Spirit can never die. Live in your NEW HOME 🏠 my brother and when this life is over for me I'll see you around the throne of GOD IN HEAVEN. Your friend and brother forever Minister Arnold E Patton
