May our God of peace, love, and joy strengthen the McBride family. May he let them know that weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.

My Nephew Byron McBride Was A Man Of God, That Loved His Children, His Parents, His Entire Family, Friends, CoWorkers, and this list could go on forever. Because Byron Loved everyone, He met no strangers that he could interact with, and walk away from them, leaving them in Awe, if the Great Man He Was. I will forever miss my Nephew, but I know that he's in a better place, one free from pain and any other inconvenience he might have had. Byron's gone from our sight, but never our hearts, because our hearts is the place, that He will always belong! Love You Byron! R.I.P. Nephew 🙏👤👤♀️

“ My Nephew Byron had the sweetest personality a smile that could win you over and that slow drawl Chicago accent that was heart warming... so much so I looked forward to him just saying “How are you doing “Aunt Lynn”
He had such a gentle loving spirit so that certainly denotes a pure heart he showed for everyone ❤️
I miss my communications with Byron be it a phone call or back and forth tex messages
His Spirit was indicative like his Mom Dad Brother and Sister a loving Family that I’m proud to be a part of
I could never tell if he was ever unnerved
Wonderful Wonderful Nephew that is greatly missed now resting in the care of our Heavenly Father

“ When Byron was in middle school in Garland, Texas, he attend Jackson Middle School where I taught. He received a detention that was supposed to be signed by a parent. Since I was a cousin, he thought I could sign for him. To his surprised, I couldn't. I remember him a fun loving young man.
