“ CHARLES WAS A GOOD MAN, AND A VERY GOOD NEIGHBOR, AS WELL. MY HEART GOES OUT TO THE COLEMAN FAMILY WITH DEEPEST SYMPATHY. WE HAD SOME GREAT LAUGHS TOGETHER, AND I REMEMBER EVERY TIME HE SEEN ME HE SAID "WHATS UP OLD MAN"? HE WILL BE DEARLY MIISSED. CHARLES IS GONE, BUT WILL NEVER BE FORGOTTEN. FROM BRANDON JACKSON, AND THE JACKSON FAMILY.

Charles will be truly missed. Always loved his company during the summer days and nights in my dad's garage. We had many laughs together. Will never forget his big smile. May God be with you all.

“Charles was a decent man who embraced the challenges that life threw at him no matter how rough they were. He relied on his faith in god, his adoring wife Paula patience to battle with him and the love of his children, mother ,family and friends. He was a good neighbor and friend who will b remembered and truly missed. Rest in peace bro!
