“ For 35 plus years Daryl Jones, (DJ) you were an amazing guy! You were my big brother and my friend. When you were around, there was never an dry eye. You did for free what other pay to see Mr. Funny man. You were an jokester and comedian, that never got paid. Daryl Jones, you gave the gift of laughter so other can find joy in the place of tears and pain.

Daryl Jones, for me and others, No matter who or what broke you down, what really matters is WHO made you laugh and smile. Wherever you came around Daryl Jones, you make it all the better with laughter. Making other forgetting the reason for the pain. Daryl Jones, there are a lot of people who can make me laugh, but there a only a few who can make me cry and laugh at the same time.

Daryl Jones, there is only one of the most Valuable Gifts in life and that is an Loyal Friends. You were my friend Daryl and I will miss you. So go and do you dance in the motions of stepping to a new beat, because after all you were very sharp with your feet.

Daryl Jones, I will miss you my Dear Friend and Brother! Love you

“ Daryl was my homie....it wasn't a time I came around him and he didn't welcome me with open arms and a funny joke. No matter how long the time away was we always jumped right in like it was yesterday. From my tomboy days to my woman days Daryl always was there with support and always topped it off with something funny. I give the family my condolences and pray your strength through this time. Love y'all!!!
