“ Over the course of years, Derrick & I have talked about many of things, but one conversation comes to my mind: About 7 or 8 years ago, we were talking about God and the need to change some things in his life (notice I said in his life as if my life was perfect). He listened to me and waited for me to finish. Then he spoke and I'll never forget what he told me because first of all, it corrected me. Second, it made me see the gift of salvation in a different light. Because I don't remember exactly what he said, I'm going to paraphrase it in the way that I understood what he said.

He Said, he was in a car accident when he was young and died but God brought him back. God told him that “I got you, this is not your time. When I'm ready for you, I'll come get you”. Derrick went on to say that from that day forward, he says his prayers every day and ask God to forgive him no matter where he is. He said that it is up to his Maker and that he wasn't leaving here until God said so.

I understood then that Christ forgives ALL sin except blasphemy, and He said you need only have faith the size of a mustard seed. Now I don't know how big Derrick's faith was but I can attest that every day I saw him, he said his prayers and I can attest that he believed in Christ.
