I only met him once and it was my pleasure, but it seem as though I knew him for years through his sister Dora Harris and my friendship. I know you will be truly missed. Rest in heaven

“ Uncle Earl I will never forget about you, how loving, spiritual, kind, and a great man and father Uncle, Brother, friends, in-law . You will forever be with me in my heart and soul I'll never let you go Uncle Earl. I know it was so much you wanted to say but wasn't able to. I know who took care of you and the ones that showed up, stole from you and your children .Posted your oldest sister and you under neath that demon picture. It was like my Uncle Earl seemed to be a burden, yes Uncle Earl you and me had a pact but I release you from that pact and you went home 2 days later. I cold see in your face how you were feeling. My Uncle yes my uncle Earl you're at PEACE, FREE, LONELY, BUT ALWAYS LOVED IN MY HEART, and your oldest sister BEATRICE Brown who helped rest you. My Uncle Earl is a wonderful, blessful funny person. Uncle you taught me so much I'll never forget "TO LET PEACE BE STILL and tell that Devil to get behind you and my family I rebuke you from myself and family. Rest in eternal peace Uncle Earl.
