Its hard to find the words to say now that your gone. I'm grateful to have been in the pressence of such a dynamic, strong yet gentle and peaceful woman. I will always miss the the kind words of advice, the smile on your face when I would come to visit after long periods of time and most of all The 4th of July, Labor day, and Memorial Day Bar-B-Que's at your house. Im glad your in a better place now and that you've left this crazy world behind. When you get to your destination please tell my Mo-Mo that I love her and I miss her so much. And to my family, this is a celebration in her life and we should not be saddened because if we were happy in her life we should not be displeased in her death for it came from the same master. God Bless. R.I.P

“ My grandma was one of the sweetest little lady's I knew. Her smile and laugh was infectious and her demeanor always so calm and collected. She wouldn't be caught anywhere without at least a few pieces of jewelry and was the absolute best bargain shopper! Spending time at my grandma's house meant a definite for 3 things, eating microwave popcorn, watching Wheel of Fortune and having fun!

She will truly be missed..... RIP
