

Emma Becton

July 17, 1935 - October 19, 2015

Emma Lue Becton began her life's journey on July 17, 1935 in Memphis, Tennessee. She was the first of two children from the union of Sammie and Josie Becton. Blessed with 80 years on this earth, she was preceded in death by both her parents and her brother. She was educated and wed her husband, Leslie C Jones, while living in Memphis. Before he preceded her in death, Emma and Leslie had 2 sons. She later moved to Chicago where she worked at the U. S. Post Office for 29 years never taking a sick day. She gave her life to Jesus Christ at an early age and was an active and faithful member of The Gospel Truth M.B. Church in Chicago, Illinois.

She enjoyed cooking holiday dinners for family and friends. An entertainer at heart, Emma had the gift of gab. She could come up with a one-liner for any occasion or any situation. In September 2015 when her health began declining, she moved to New Jersey for family to care for her. Surrounded in the comfort of her family, Emma transitioned from this life on October 19, 2015.

Left to cherish fun loving memory are: her son Leslie (Elenita); one sister Diane; 7 granddaughters Carolyn, Stephaine (Shawn), Trenette, Lafutima, Leslie, Shari, and Treinity; one grandson Andre; 2 loving nephews James and Terry; a play sister Alma and a play brother Earl; 18 great grandchildren; 6 great-great grandchildren.; many nephews and, nieces and a host of relatives and friends. Her son John, grandson Leslie and great-grandson Travis preceded her in death.
