“ Sincere condolence blessings to my dear Geeter's family and friends.

*The passing of Sister Felicia was a heartfelt surprise. She was a loving and kind lady, who loved her family ~{greatly, her nieces & nephews}. Treasured her dear friends. Glad to hear that her friends were close at hand, in the midst of her crisis. Proverbs 17:17 states, "A friend loves at all times, ..." ~ Amen.

I met Sister Felicia in the mid-1980's when she visited her Mom ~ {Mrs. Elma Geeter} in New Jersey. Lastly, I saw Felicia at her Mother's home going services in N.J. ~ September 30, 2023. We communicated via texting several times since that date and 'snail-mail'. Smile.

Prayers for her loved ones, that will miss her in Chicago, IL and in NJ. Hope God's grace will give them each, "Peace that will surpass all understanding, ... keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" ~ {Philippians 4:7}, Amen.

Brothers' Joseph & David, Sr. ~the loss of a sibling is not easy. Hopefully, the sweet memories of Felicia's love will warm your hearts. (I experienced loss in '2004' and '2022' ~my two special Sisters). Time does heal the separation and the empty feelings. God bless you both, as you will lean on each other & family.

*As stated in, Ecclesiastes 3: 1 & 2A _ Life has seasons and assigned times!

"To everything there is a season, ... A time to be born, and a time to die; ..."

*Cordially,
Your Sister and Friend.*
