“ Floyd’s mom and my mom were first cousins. Floyde and I grew up together and always enjoyed each other’s company. I truly loved Floyde and Bell, they were my favorite. I’m so proud to say I saw Floyde everyday because we FaceTime each other. once and sometimes a day. I knew his friends, one day he told me he couldn’t get in touch with one of them, I informed him I saw his friend name in the death notice and he asked me to check and see if that was him and I did just that. I will certainly miss him. Gone but not forgotten.

“ I remember when Jantae & I we’re little kiddos at Bradwell Elementary School. Mr. Spencer always was so very kind to me and always offered the best after school snacks or gave Jantae money so that we could go to Clarence’s on 79th St to get penny candy. Thank you for your kindness and for being such an amazing Father to Jantae & her siblings/grandchildren. Rest peacefully!

“ I met you once briefly on a Zoom call and could feel your power and presence then. You live on in your beautiful daughter Jantae and with your other children and grandchildren. Go with God.
