

Glapier Hopkins

December 16, 1957 - May 9, 2024

Glapier Denail Hopkins was born December 16, 1958 in Chicago, Illinois to the parents Samuel and Clemmie Hopkins (both preceded his death). Glapier was the third oldest of a family of six children. He was educated in the Chicago Public Schools system for both elementary and High School. Glapier went to Chicago Vocational High School where his major was Accounting. After graduation Glapier worked at First National Bank of Chicago working in the accounting department. After graduation, Glapier married his childhood sweetheart, Lillie McCree on November 21, 1981 and a few years later came their daughter Sandra Hopkins. After a few years Glapier left the Bank and then worked for the United States Post Office. He left the Post Office because his health took precedence over his life even though he was in and out of the hospital, he loved education, and he went back to school at Moraine Valley Community College and received an associate degree in science in May 2008. He also became a teacher in

Sunday school. Glapier loved family and he loved to eat homecooked food.

Glapier leaves behind his ex-wife Lillie Hopkins, his daughter Sandra Hopkins

– Davis, and two granddaughters Nailah Davis and Mia Davis. He also leaves four sisters

Sandra Jefferies (Robert

Jefferies – Brother-in-Law), Clemmie Walker, Patricia Jenkins and Tanya

Woodley, One Brother

Samuel Hopkins, Two aunts Lillie Howard and Geenola Williams, Two uncles

Edward Williams and Leroy Williams. He also cherishes the memories of many nieces and nephews and a host of cousins and many dear friends.
