“ My love and condolences to the Jackson Family, SIMBA, SIMSA, and my Shekinah Family. What a powerful giant we were blessed to experience, truly an honor!

Jcohn, Thank you so much for always being so encouraging to my higher calling. Thank you for listening, supporting me and being so willing to help where you could. Thank you for seeing me! I am so thankful to have known such a sweet soul. You will truly be missed in the physical, may your spirit continue to bless our presence and live on in our hearts. Smooth transition to the ancestral world King, TOO BLACK, TOO STRONG!

“ Mrs. Jackson, when I think of Jcohn I think of D.J. extraordinaire. The man who was able to spin records, dance and hype people up. He was a great friend and a wonderful person. He will be missed. God bless you and your family.
