“ Josiah was one of my closest friends in middle school before he left back to Chicago. Me and him and all our friends would rap at lunch with the little pens and pencils to make the beat. I swear we was cold 🥶 !! Josiah always had a different flow and would switch it up and say some funny shit everybody would just laugh at or say some hard shit where everyone would be in ahh of how he is killing this simple beat on a freestyle 😂 Me him and other friend would be at my house after school playing basketball outside, and rapping and just talking inside my room for hours. I wish I knew more about communication like I do now, he is my brother but he would have been still my closest friend if I just learned how to reach out even though we don't see each other everyday. Always had my back and vice versa, we were in middle school at lunch and the janitor was saying some goofy stuff with me and I went back and forth with him, Josiah stepped in and tried to resolve problem when things had escalated and the janitor said words to Josiah that wasn't respectful and he started cursing back. Me and Josiah had to go to the office, we were just laughing about it and how that guy was goofy for tryna Picc on us and think we wouldn't do anything but we were just kids. He ended up getting a school suspension for the verbal talk towards the janitor and since I showed defiance in the situation I got in school suspension. I Truly thank God I have met Josiah and his face, voice, and words lay with me everyday and I will Acknowledge his name and memories in my music.

“ Long live JB,

Man I wish your voice was here with me
Every lunch 7th Grade it was you and me
Wouldn't let the teachers teach
Nigga we was doin our thing
Got caught up in some action
And my bro had to take a leave 🕊️
Long Live Josiah ❤️ 🎸 🖤

I didn't know Josiah that well personally, I had the pleasure of knowing him as the young man from across the street and that young man was always polite and kind. He would never fail to speak. He would always say.... how you doing mamm. He is and will be truly missed. He's A Young Angel Who Has Entered Into The Kingdom. Our Love ❤️ too his family

“ Josiah was my greatest friend in Arizona. He was my rock who kept me sane, Josiah was the most loving and caring person I've ever met and I'm so sad to see him go. There's so many good things to say about Josiah because he wasn't a bad person at all and I'll forever cherish my memories with him. I just wanted to thank him for everything he's done for me. He always offered me wise words just like his senior quote "Life is like a sandwich, no matter which way you flip it the bread always comes first". Rest up my boy I'll see you soon.
