

Lois A Green

November 23, 1939 - August 7, 2012

Lois A. Green was born in Marrero, Louisiana on November 23, 1939, to the late Jules and Nadage Johnson.

In 3rd grade, Lois made her first holy communion at Blessed Sacrament Catholic School. Lois had such a love for the Lord and remained steadfast to her faith throughout her life. Lois was a proud and faithful member of St. Ailbe Catholic Church in Chicago, IL. At St. Ailbe's, Lois was a member of the choir until her illness caused her to take a leave of absence.

Lois attended Lincoln High School in Marrero, Louisiana and upon graduation, she began to work at Ochsner Hospital as a housekeeper. During this time, she gave birth to her son, Damon.

In May of 1963, Lois moved to Chicago with her Aunt Fannie and Uncle John Simmons. She worked at Teletype (Illinois Bell), where she met Ruth Perry. Ruth told Lois about her baby brother Howard, and at which time, she introduced the two.

Howard and Lois married on August 7, 1965. To this union was born Karen and Stacey.

After Teletype (Illinois Bell), Lois then worked for McDonnell & Miller from which she retired in December 2001.

Lois was called home to be with her Lord and Saviour on August 7, 2012.

Lois leaves to mourn her husband of 47 years; Howard and 3 children; Damon, Karen (Nathaniel) and Stacey; grandchildren (Maxine, Janelle and Jason); Sisters (Willa Mae, Eula, Anne, Barbara); Brothers (Alvin, Stanley, Carl, Aaron, Wayne, Marvin and Jules, Jr.) and a host of relatives and friends.
