“Daddy, you were the BEST DAD anyone could ever have. You were a man of integrity, honest, very true to living for God. I often express to you that I would trade places with you because I Love you just that much. You were told many of times by me how much I loved you and appreciated you to the utmost. I just don't understand the reasoning of you leaving us, but I plan to see you again, Daddy. Save a seat for me. Love you to the moon and back.

“ I treasure the memory of the congestion knowing what type of message we would receive on Sunday. If Pastor Carter had on his blue & white or black & white robe we would hear him teaching his sermon. But look out if he had on that beige and brown robe it was fussing time. This will be truly missed, because it was done all in love.

“ I remember when Bishop Carter gave me my first dog! He brought Max over, a Doberman Pincher puppy. My mom made him come get Max after about 3 days lol. But I'll always remember that day. I was so happy. Rest well. You did a fine job of teaching and leading. Shalom!
