“ He worked at checker cab co. I remember being tired did'nt want to take the bus so i ran out flagging , waving and hollering taxi he slowed looked out driver side window the made a u turn i was so delited because he was in route to pay his bill at checker cab co. Near down town chicago he says hello my name is T.J i barely undeestood what he said next , he says if u not in a hurry if u don't mind i need to run to the cacab co. it will take about 10 mins. and i will have u back to yoyr destination in no time, i replied o.k that's fine cause i appreciate u stopping for me and its so hot out he said alright its was quick and efficient i trusted that he was a good guy and he proved right I've known him every since he left us his friends and family, he an angel who is truly missed, god bless him amen
