

Nannie Jackson

December 14, 1918 - July 22, 2012

Nannie Jackson

was born the second of three children on December 14, 1918 to the union of Charlie and Petrolia Jackson.

Having recognized the love and comfort of God at an early age, she was baptized at St. Elizabeth Church on May 4th 1930 and later joined St. Ansle's Church both on Chicago's Southside.

Nannie graduated from Englewood High School and later attended the Art Institute of Chicago where she earned an Associated Degree. Her eagerness to learn, explore and help others lead her through many career endeavors until she found her true calling as a Nursing Assistant in 1958. She cared for others at St. Anne's Hospital on Chicago's Westside until her retirement in 1983. During her tenure she earned her credentials as an LPN but chose to finish her medical career as a Certified Nursing Assistant.

She was the proud and loving mother of four sons: Lee, Alfred, Chris and Gregory. Chris and Alfred preceded her in going home.

The Lord called early on July 22, 2012 to invite her to his home for an extended stay. She leaves to cherish her love and memory two sons: Lee and Gregory; Three daughters-in-law, Mary, Bernice and Linda; Twelve grandchildren and a host of great-grandchildren and friends.

Cemetery Details

Mt. Hope Cemetery

11500 S Fairfield
Chicago, IL

Tribute Wall

“ 5 files added to the album Memories Album

---

Travis Funeral Home, LLC - August 10, 2012 at 09:44 AM

JJ

“ Grandma I miss you I love you may you R.I.P gone but not forgotten
Love Jerome Jackson

---

Jerome G Jackson - July 28, 2012 at 06:29 PM