

Princess Lee Mormon

November 11, 1933 - April 21, 2012

Princess Cole, “Mama” was born in Birdeye, Arkansas on November 11, 1933 to Charles and LuEmma Cole. She was the younger of two children; Princess’ brother, Elezar Cole, preceded her in death.

Princess moved to Chicago at an early age to pursue a better life. She later met and married Robert Mormon in July of 1970.

Mama had many hobbies: reading, working puzzles and watching dramatic television. In addition, Princess was enthusiastic about gardening. She would spend hours in her garden where she would find peace. Although Mama was passionate about her hobbies, it all came second to the time she spent with her family.

Mama expressed her love for her family through cooking. Sunday dinner and holidays were always a time to relish.

Princess leaves to cherish her memories a loving and devoted husband Robert, two daughters Pamela and Carmen, one son George(Teresa), six grandchildren, five great grandchildren, two great great grandchildren and a host of family and friends.

“ Dear Miss Princess, this is Miss Betty, we have been "round the corner" neighbors, best friends, and "sisters" forever. God has decided in His infinite wisdom to call you home and end your suffering here on Earth. I will miss you, but knowing that you are in heaven with God our Father and Jesus our Savior - I have peace.

As you make your transition from this world to the next, I am reminded of a scripture from the Holy Bible in the book of Ecclesiastes chapter 3.

1 To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;

Miss Princess, God has decided to pick you from this earthly garden, and plant you in His garden in heaven.

I will never say goodbye to you, because I will see you again in heaven. So, to you my friend, I will say goodnight.

*Love always,
Betty M. Harwell (Chicago)*

"Every blade in the field and every leaf in the forest lays down its life in its season, as beautifully as it was taken up."
