

Robert Patrick Jr

January 16, 1960 - August 27, 2012

Robert Patrick, Jr. was born January 16, 1960 in Evanston, Illinois. He was the first born to the union of Fairlee and Robert Patrick, Sr. He was affectionately known as "Puddin' " by his family. His father preceded him in death, in 1972.

Robert received Christ at an early age. During Sunday Service, Robert would play the drums every Sunday. This is where his musical journey began.

Robert attended John Hope for Elementary School. Robert was always a sports lover. He was on a Little League team for many years. He attended Gage Park and Muskegon Heights High Schools. Robert played several sports while there. He was gifted in his athletic abilities.

Robert then entered the United States Army in 1977 where he received his GED. While in the Army, he was blessed to have a wonderful son, Corey. Robert was honorably discharged in 1983.

After returning home, Robert reunited with his childhood friend, Jennifer. In 1983, Robert married her. To this union, two beautiful daughters were born, Jasmine and Chanelle.

Robert was a drummer in several bands in the 1980's. One of his favorites was called the Horseman's Calibar Band. He was a gifted song writer and producer sharing his music with family and friends. In 2012, he accomplished his goal of sharing his song with the world on the internet as Apostle Rock, "My Name is Jesus".

In 1983, Robert rededicated his life to the Lord. He and Jennifer joined Hyde Park Fellowship. They followed the church as they moved into their first building on 83rd and Marquette, New Heritage Christian Center. There, Robert played the drums and was often referred to as "A Power Drummer".

Robert moved to Minnesota in 1988. While there, he met Terry. They were married June 10, 1992. Robert and Terry lived in Minnesota until 2007. They relocated to Chicago where they purchased a home and shared their lives.

Later on in his spiritual journey, he was ordained as a Minister. Robert was a faithful member and drummer of Mount Calvary Baptist Church in Niles, Michigan until he departed this life.

Robert leaves to cherish his memories: his beloved mother, Fairlee; brother, Tony; loving wife, Terry; daughter, Dawn; son, Corey (Karen); daughters Jasmine and Chanelle; grandchildren; Joshua, Mialoni, Camden and Max; great granddaughter, Hailey Marie; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, godchildren and a host of other family and friends.
