“ My Grandfather Stanley was a good man who lived a long life. Having the pleasure of growing up in the same home I will forever have memories of you in my heart. Especially when you always made sure that I along with all the other kids on the block had ice cream when the truck came around. Price never mattered, but I could see your heart glow when you saw all the other kids smiling from such a simple gift. Your body will be placed in the earth, but your soul will relocate to heaven where you will have the pleasure of seeing my Grandmother again. Rest in Paradise Stanley!

*Love your Granddaughter,
Dolicia*

“ My father, Stanley, use to come home from work and play with my friends and I in the middle of the street. We didn't mind that he was an adult. We only cared that he was having fun playing laughing and enjoying himself and I as well. He is not in anymore pain. He's in a better place with his wife Willie B, mother, father, brother, grandson, (Kenyatta), family and friends. I will miss you so much.
Your Daughter,
Patricia
