

Victoria Lee Davis

October 8, 1951 - February 1, 2012

Victoria Davis, affectionately known as Vicky, was born in Chicago, Illinois on October 8, 1951 to the union of Geraldine Ramirez and Jessie James. In the 1990's she moved to Mount Vernon, Illinois and later moved to St. Louis, Missouri before returning home to Chicago in 2011.

Vicky was initially baptized as a Catholic and was later confirmed in the Christian Faith. She rededicated her life to Christ and became a member of United Praise Ministries under the leadership of Pastor Major Matthews.

Vicky loved life and had a way of making everyone smile. She had the biggest heart and a giving spirit. If you were around her and said you liked something, she would do her best to get it for you. If you came in Vicky's presence, she had a natural way of making friends whereas you became part of the family. She opened her house to anyone in need.

Vicky enjoyed playing cards, watching horror, crime and western movies and cooking. Her favorite dishes were red beans and rice, fried chicken, chicken and noodles, smothered potatoes, and devil eggs. People knew when they entered Vicky's house she would beat them in playing Spades but comfort them with a good ole home cooked meal.

On February 1, 2012 while surrounded by her family, Vicky departed her earthly dwelling place to be present with the Lord in heaven. She was preceded in death by her mother Geraldine Ramirez, sisters Patricia Gaudet and Sharman Taylor and brother, Moriel Gaudet.

Vicky leaves to cherish her precious memories, three daughters: Geraldine (Aaron) Brown, Angela Gardet, Clonise Gardet; one son: Reuben (Bridget) Gardet; six sisters: Charlouise Levi, Carla Brandon, Sandra (Don) Edwards, Catherine (Linsbert) Reynolds, Gail Roman and Lisa Moore; two brothers: Terrence Gaudet and Ronald (Yvonne) Gardet; 17 grandchildren, 15 great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends.

“ Hi Mom, it's me Gerri, just sitting here thinking of you. I just celebrated my 46th birthday and am really remembering the big to do, you gave me for my birthday last year. That birthday breakfast you hosted for me all by yourself and that beautiful cake you bought me with such beautiful words written on it. I appreciate and love you so very much, life is so very different without you, its funny because you never really think about how it would be without your mother until you departed this life. The thing that get me through is that I know you are not suffering anymore, actually you have it so much better than we do because you are there with JESUS whom died for all of us. I remember your last days, you were so sweet yet very feisty. You were a woman that was loved by all and I will never forget your giving heart, your beautiful smile and the touch of your soft skin. I LOVE you mom. I work here in my home office with your ashes right here next to me, I carried out everything just the way you wanted me to so I know you are well pleased. Love, Love, Love you always. Life will never be the same without you!!! Gerri

Hi Mom, I lit a candle for you today, just want you to know that I am thinking of you always. As I sit in my home office and work, you are right here with me, I turn around and you are right there, I'm looking at your picture constantly. I am so grateful that I was able to keep you :-)
Loving and missing you physically being here but your spirit will have to do because God knows best, Jesus is love.....Gerri

Judy Scarlet - July 27, 2012 at 10:55 AM

Vickie remember telling me that your daughters' didn't think it was proper for you to have men (ie, male neighbors or friends) over even though it was just for conversation and coffee and I said it would be impossible to keep people away from you because you were so damned adorable!! And you know this to be true. Here I am coping with depression; I don't have nothing to smile about and life sucks, yada-yada, I rent the apartment next to yours. The things you would tell me would make me laugh so hard and long. Does anybody else know about the goat you had that used to faint all the time? We moved apart and I rented another apartment and you are here with me. It's unnatural, even supernatural maybe but I'm keeping my place neat and tidy because I know this would of made you smile. My beautiful best, best friend. You are a precious, priceless gem and I miss you dearly. I want to thank you for the little time we had together, you and Carla, from the very bottom of my heart forever and always. I wish I could talk to you one last time and I would ask you, when do I go? And will you be there?

*I love you and your family.
From our hearts to your children,
Judy Scarlet*

Mom, just want you to know that I think about you all the time. I sent you an Angel because I know how you loved Angels when you were here on earth with us. I will forever hold you in my heart and you will forever be my Angel. You are so precious to me, I look at your picture every day and give you a kiss. I LOVE you so very much and I made sure you knew that while you were here on earth with us and you still know even though you are in heaven. Thank God for Jesus whom always make a way for us, because of Jesus I will see you again. Thank you Jesus.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with you all during this difficult time. We send our love, condolences, and heartfelt sympathy. I pray that you will find the inner strength and the peace of mind that surpasses all understanding to comfort you in the coming days. Our faith tells us that God is showering his blessings on you at this very moment. The Bible says "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted. I pray that God will surround you all with the love of family and friends to ease your pain. I have faith that Victoria is on a wondrous journey to reap her just rewards. She had a unique way of bringing a smile or laughter to your face. Her presence could light up a room. She will be truly missed but never forgotten.
